GERBER MAN INDICTED FOR POSSESSING CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

SACRAMENTO--United States Attorney McGregor W. Scott announced today that a federal grand jury returned a three-count indictment charging JEREMY FLINN, 21, of Gerber, California, with possessing child pornography.

This case is the product of an extensive investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Carolyn K. Delaney, who is prosecuting the case, the indictment alleges that on between May 13, 2004 and September 17, 2004 FLINN possessed child pornography.

If convicted, the maximum penalty under federal law for each offense of possessing child pornography is ten years in prison, a fine of $250,000, and supervised release for life.

The charges are only allegations and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
